A Warm Invite to the 2024 AIHS National Health & Safety Conference

Our 2024 National Health & Safety Conference is being held in Melbourne at the Melbourne Convention Centre from the 21st – 23rd of May under the theme 'Stronger Together'.

'Stronger Together' emphasizes the power of collaboration among industry bodies, regulators, workplaces, academia and more. By fostering partnerships and sharing knowledge, the conference aims to highlight the collective strength that comes from collaboration, enabling greater achievements and informed practices for the betterment of the profession.

The conference will encompass three days of workshops, presentations, keynote speeches, networking events and a Conference Dinner. Delegates will have the opportunity to learn from their peers, share knowledge and grow their professional networks.

Our 2023 Conference was the largest in our long 75-year history, and this year is set to be even bigger.

We look forward to welcoming you to what promises to be an enlightening, engaging and collaborative conference.

Kind regards,

Julia Whitford,

Presented by Anthony Gibbs, CEO Sentis

Why 86% of organisations are stuck in a negative safety culture and what you can do to create a different safety experience!

Too often in our attempts to drive compliance and keep people physically safe, we overlook the holistic way in which people experience safety at work. Positive safety cultures consider not only physical safety experiences but also social connections and overall psychological safety resulting in high trust cultures, greater collaboration and a culture where safety is a shared value.

In this workshop you will be exposed to insights from over 60,000 safety climate survey respondents which in turn will lead you to:

- Be challenged to redefine your organisation's definition of the word safety. Gain a greater understanding of the employee safety experience and lay the foundation for higher trust, improved collaboration and better learning outcomes.
- Unpack what the research says about the interplay and impact of physical, psychological and social safety and the implications for safety improvement.
- Using data, review and apply practical tools that organisations can apply to build stronger physical, psychological and social safety leading to enhanced trust, collaboration, learning and safety innovation.

Whether your company has reached a safety plateau or is simply trying to accelerate its progress, this workshop is a must attend.
